GREG RATHS

CALIFORNIA 45TH CONGRESSIONAL DISTRICT
UNITED STATES CONGRESS 2020

Dear friends,

Like many of you, I no longer subscribe to my hometown paper. It's no secret, the liberal media has become a wing of the Democrat party.

Recently Orange County Register reporter Brooke Staggs called me for an interview on my race against Liberal Progressive Congresswoman, Katie Porter. I refused to engage because she has written negative pieces about me and my campaign.

The definition of "Insanity is doing the same thing over and over and expecting different results."

I am going to run my campaign, the fake news can run their own campaign.

-Col. Greg Raths

Here are just a few samples of how the media continues to support Porter

MYTH: In her article, Brook said I often poke fun at Katie Porter's wardrobe.

FACT: I have never mentioned Katie Porter's wardrobe. What I and many have questioned is why she wore a Bat Costume last year while she was in Committee voting to impeach the President.

HYPOCRITICAL:

Fake News often goes after Republicans for not wearing masks. Here Katie Porter sits with others on August 2020 where nobody is wearing a mask!! Not one mention by the Fake News.

Since this has come up a few times of late, a reminder that @ocregister reporters have nothing to do with endorsements. They're made by an editorial board, and we read about them in the paper like everyone else. This is who's on the board and how it works:

OC Register political reporter basically apologizes and blames Editorial Board on Twitter because the left became unglued when I was endorsed by the paper.

Meanwhile, the OC Register Reporter has suggested Katie Porter will be looked at as an US Senate Candidate, practically endorsing her reelection.

You can clearly see why I won't give the Fake News the pleasure of giving them an interview. If I am going to get our common sense message out, I need your continued support! Orange County and our country can't afford Katie Porter.
