COMPLAINT EXHIBIT 1

In the Matter of:
March For Our Lives Foundation
March For Our Lives Action Fund
March For Our Lives California

I. INTRODUCTION

Complainant, Ajay Mohan, respectfully requests that the California Attorney General's Office investigate March For Our Lives Foundation ("MFOL Foundation"), March For Our Lives Action Fund ("MFOL Action"), and March For Our Lives California for apparent violations of California laws governing charitable organizations. The available facts raise serious questions regarding improper use and conversion of charitable assets, false or misleading charitable solicitations, and failure to operate in accordance with the charitable purposes stated in tax filings and registrations.

II. FACTUAL BACKGROUND

MFOL Foundation is a nonprofit public benefit corporation formed in Delaware and registered as a charitable organization under Internal Revenue Code § 501(c)(3). See Attachment 1. MFOL Action is a related 501(c)(4) social welfare organization, also incorporated in Delaware. See Attachment 2. Both entities operate under the "March for Our Lives" brand, including in California, where they are registered with the Attorney General's Registry of Charitable Trusts and operate a prominent presence known as "March for Our Lives California." See Attachment 3.

According to publicly available records and analytics, an Instagram account bearing the handle @mfolcalifornia was created in April 2018 and built to approximately 60,000 followers. See Attachment 4. This account functioned as the official digital platform for MFOL's California operations, including for the promotion of events, campaigns, and other public education activities. Based upon information and belief, the account was built using the resources of MFOL Action and/or MFOL Foundation.

On or around July 3, 2025, shortly after Perry Meade, a former staffer for MFOL, declared his candidacy for U.S. Congress, the @mfolcalifornia account abruptly dropped nearly all of its followers. See Attachment 5. Days later, a new Instagram account appeared under the handle @perryforcongress with approximately the same follower count. See Attachment 6. Despite having never posted, the @perryforcongress account appeared to have inherited the audience of the MFOL California page. It is estimated by one industry expert that the value of the converted Instagram is approximately $79,000.

The circumstantial evidence strongly indicates that a charitable asset — a social media account built using charitable resources and branding — was transferred or converted for the personal benefit of a political candidate. There is no evidence that this asset transfer was disclosed in any IRS filings or to the Attorney General’s Office, nor is there evidence that the organizations received compensation for the transfer. Further, such conduct is incompatible with the stated charitable purposes of both MFOL Foundation and MFOL Action, and raises questions about whether charitable solicitations made before and during the asset’s creation misrepresented how donations would be used.

III. LEGAL VIOLATIONS

A. Misuse and Conversion of Charitable Assets

Under California law, assets of charitable organizations must be used exclusively for their stated charitable purposes. See Cal. Corp. Code §§ 5140, 5233; Gov. Code §§ 12580-12599.10. Charitable directors and officers owe fiduciary duties of care and loyalty and may not transfer charitable assets for private benefit or political purposes. See Cal. Corp. Code § 5231. The transfer of a high-value digital platform — built with charitable resources — for the benefit of a declared political candidate constitutes an apparent violation of these duties and of California charitable trust principles.

B. Failure to Operate in Accordance with Stated Charitable Purposes

The conversion of the Instagram account into a campaign tool for Perry Meade appears inconsistent with the charitable purposes described in the organizations’ IRS Form 1023/1024 applications and California charitable registrations. See Attachments 3 & 7. Neither MFOL Foundation nor MFOL Action described political candidate support or digital asset transfers to private individuals in their applications or ongoing reports. Such a deviation from purpose may constitute a violation of Cal. Corp. Code § 5140 and Gov. Code § 12586.

C. False and Misleading Charitable Solicitations

To the extent MFOL solicited donations while representing that funds would be used solely for educational and charitable purposes, but instead used resources to support or promote a political candidate, those solicitations may have been false or misleading in violation of Gov. Code § 12599.6. Donors may have been misled into believing their contributions would support youth civic engagement, not a future congressional campaign.

IV. REQUEST FOR INVESTIGATION

Complainant respectfully requests that the Attorney General's Office:

1. Open an investigation into March For Our Lives Foundation, March For Our Lives Action Fund, and any related entities operating under the name March For Our Lives California;
2. Determine whether charitable assets were improperly used or converted for private or political purposes;
3. Review the organizations' California registrations and tax-exempt applications for inconsistencies or material omissions;
4. Evaluate whether the entities have operated in compliance with California charitable trust law; and
5. Take any enforcement actions deemed appropriate under Gov. Code § 12598 and other applicable law.

Respectfully submitted, this 11th day of August, 2025
